RIOTERS DEFEATED

A Blood Battle Between the Soldiers and the Armed Mob at Evansville, Ind.

MORE TROOPS ARE ORDERED OUT

In the Encounter Seven Persons Were Killed, 14 Wounded and That Many More Injured.

Slowly the Mob Forced the Militiamen Back Toward the Jail—Then a Charge Was Made and the Fight Commenced.

Evansville, Ind., July 7.—The first clash between the militia and citizens occurred Monday afternoon a few hours after the soldiers took up their station in front of the jail. A man attempted to brush past one of the sentries. He was halted and turned back but advanced a second time, grabbing the soldier's gun and attempting to wrest it from his hands. The soldier resisted and finally freed his weapon and struck his assailant with his bayonet. The man was not badly injured. Late Monday evening a man was found trying to edge his way past a sentry. He was caught and an effort made by the soldier to force him outside the lines. The guard thrust his bayonet into the man's right side, inflicting a severe wound. The rioter wrested the gun away from the soldier after being wounded, threw the guard to the ground and would have bayoneted him had it not been for the prompt arrival of assistance. After the soldiers took possession of the jail Monday afternoon the streets leading to the jail were crowded. Many incendiary speeches were made.

Following four days of rioting and general lawlessness this city, Monday night saw the most terrible of its experiences with rioters. Seven persons are dead and 14 are injured with at least that number more thought to be hurt.

List of Dead and Injured.
The dead: Edward Schiffman, painter, top of head blown off with Springfield rifle. Hazel Allman, 15-year-old daughter of Joseph H. Allman, shot in breast with shot gun. John Barnett, shot in right lung; died in St. Mary's hospital. August Jordan, 19, musician, bullet wound through heart. Ed Rule, 23 years old, laborer, shot through body and head; killed instantly. Two unidentified dead men lying in front of jail.

The wounded: Fred Schmidt, seriously shot in leg and arm; taken to his home. Fred Kappler, son of City Fireman Henry Kappler, buckshot charge in face, and body wounds; serious, will die. Lee Hawley, laborer, shot in leg. Robert Miller, shot in cheek, not serious. Charles Preskey, aged 17, grocery boy, shot through left wrist and Springfield bullet wounds in both heels. Theodore Beem, aged 20, shot in right side, painful flesh wound. John Fares, aged 48, shot in head and hip; may die. Albert Kauss, soldier, shot while picking up wounded rioter; hit in right arm, not serious. Six other rioters were seen to fall but got away before their names were learned. At least that number more suspected of being shot. Four members of Company A, First regiment, bullet and light gunshot wounds on the body; one of them shot through shoulder, another through the ankle and other two slight scratches. Two deputy sheriffs slightly wounded.

FIRE INTO THE CROWD.

It Was Seen Nothing Could Prevent An Assault on the Jail.

At 10:30 o'clock the members of Company A, First regiment, Indiana national guard, after a day's vigilance guarding the county jail and 100 deputy sheriffs under Sheriff Chris Kratz, fired point blank into a mob of 1,000 men gathered on Fourth, Division and Vine streets, surrounding the Vanderburg county jail and attempting its capture. From 7 o'clock Monday morning until the hour of Monday night's catastrophe the crowd surged about the jail calling the militiamen vile names, assailing them with stones and berating the deputy sheriffs who guarded the jail. At 9 o'clock the mob gradually became more and more excited, its manifestations of uneasiness more frequent and at 10 o'clock it was seen that nothing could prevent an assault on the jail. At 10:30 o'clock the rioters pressed slowly forward and innocent onlookers and the curious followed. Slowly they forced the militiamen back toward the jail until the alleyway between Division street and the stone building was reached.

Attempted to Enter the Alley.
Then the leaders, with a bicycle in their front as a shield to the bayonets of the soldiers, attempted to enter the alley and storm the alleyway entrance. Capt. Blum, of the national guard, ordered a charge on the rioters. Gradually the crowd was forced back, the soldiers using their bayonets and butts of guns. Suddenly a rioter fell. A soldier tried to drag him to his feet but before he could was assaulted by a rioter. Stones and boulders began to fly through the air. A soldier was struck with a rock and fell. A rioter was knocked down with a gun butt, then a shot was fired. The one shot started a fusillade of musketry and shotgun fire from the defenders of the jail and a scattered return fire from the rioters. Fully 300 shots were fired from the jail windows, the courthouse steps immediately opposite and by the soldiers on the streets.

WHO FIRED THE FIRST SHOT?

Soldiers Claim It Was the Rioters and the Latter Refuse to Talk.

No one knows who fired the first shot. The soldiers claim it was the rioters while the rioters make no claims and refuse to talk about it. The governor is said to have instructed the authorities to not jeopardize the safety of the jail with half way measures. The soldiers and deputy sheriffs fired into the retreating mob of men who ran into Division street, falling, crying and praying. For 15 minutes the firing continued, then it ceased. The mob was gone and the soldiers held the place. In front of the staggering band of 58 soldiers lay the dead and wounded. Moans and shrieks of agony and fear came from the injured. Ed Schiffman, a painter who was seen in the first ranks of the mob during the evening, lay on the sidewalk, the top of his head blown completely off with a 45-caliber Springfield bullet and his brains oozing on to the sidewalk. A short distance from him lay another man and close by the bleeding form of another young man lay dead with a bullet wound over the heart.

Wounded Rioters.

All over the street, crawling and moaning wounded rioters and onlookers tried to ease their pain and escape by getting away from the jail. On Division street, lying between her grief-stricken father and mother the little Allman girl was dead with her breast torn away with a buckshot charge. She was out driving with her parents who, attracted by the noise, stopped a few minutes to watch the excitement. In the yard of the courthouse wounded rioters lay and back of the line of soldiers two of the militiamen had fallen. On the jail steps stood Sheriff Kratz. At his side was Col. McCoy, of the First regiment. Around them stood a few doctors and reporters. When the firing had ceased Capt. Blum reformed his men and gave them orders.

INSIDE THE JAIL.

Sixteen Negro Prisoners Were Terrified By the Determined Attack.

Inside the jail 43 prisoners lay terrified in the darkness, 16 of them Negroes whose lives are far from safe if the mob attacks the jail again and effects a capture. The lights were turned out when the shooting began and the prisoners moaned and cried in their cells. Telephone messages were sent from the jail to the hospitals and to physicians calling for aid and to them the response was quick. Doctors from all over Evansville drove rapidly at the call.

The Vincennes company of militia is on the way here and Col. McCoy fears another outbreak when it arrives. All is now quiet around the jail, the soldiers still standing under arms. Outposts are stationed to avoid guerrilla shooting from the neighboring streets with rifles.

GOV. DURBIN ACTS.

More Troops Ordered to the Scene and May Declare Martial Law.

Indianapolis, Ind., July 7.—Gov. Durbin arrived at his office Monday night. He has ordered out the militia companies at New Albany, Terre Haute and Vincennes and is calling out Indianapolis companies to hold in reserve. He is preparing to declare martial law. He expresses indignation at the sheriff of Vanderburg county, and says if the sheriff had performed his duty instead of relying on the state the catastrophe would have been avoided.

Gov. Durbin was very much agitated at the information from Evansville. "If this condition continues," he declared, emphatically, "I shall go to Evansville myself and declare the city under martial law."

Lexington, Ky., July 7.—On July 22, before the Hanover Athletic club, John Dancer, of Cincinnati, will meet Young Dobbs, of Philadelphia, in a 15 round bout. Kid Johnson will meet an unknown the same night. L. M. Webb, the manager of Jesse Shipp, 123 pounds, and Jim Fields, heavy weight, is anxious to get a match for his men the same night.

A bill for about $180 in favor of the M. C. Russell & Co. for supplies furnished during the smallpox epidemic was referred to the Committee on Claims and Accounts.

The N. Cooper estate presented a claim for $59.40 for furniture, carpets, bedding &c., destroyed as a result of the Duncan case of smallpox at St. Charles Hotel last spring. On motion the claim was laid on the table.

City Clerk Daulton filed a receipt from the Treasurer and Collector of tax receipts amounting to $36,933.31 for this year.

Permits were granted as follows: Dr. W. R. Harrington, to erect an outbuilding on Elizabeth street; F. Dresel, to erect a two-story frame residence on Second street, Sixth ward.

Citizens living on West Third street petitioned Council to furnish better protection from fire, by keeping a hose reel in a building to be provided. A motion to refer it to Committee on Fire Department to provide the hose as soon as convenient was lost.

The Internal Improvement Committee was ordered to repair and repaint the bridge over Limestone Creek.

The usual salary was allowed the fire companies. The Limestones had already been advanced their money.

The question of effecting a settlement with F. Stanley Watson for commission on back taxes collected was referred to the Committee on Claims and Accounts, with the City Attorney, to report at next meeting.

The question of reimbursing County Infirmary Superintendent Slattery for his faithful and self-sacrificing services for the city during the smallpox epidemic was discussed at length. The Mayor and others bore testimony to his very faithful, efficient and untiring work, and thought he ought to be handsomely reimbursed. The opinion of many was that it would have been hard to secure any one else to do such work. A motion to donate Mr. Slattery $150 was adopted by a vote of 9 to 2.

Four emergency bonds each for $500 were ordered issued and sold to provide funds for current expenses.

The mother of Mary Green, colored, died Sunday and was buried Monday afternoon.

Sunday school superintendents are all requested to meet at the office of Mr. John Duley on Court street at 4:30 this afternoon to make final arrangements for the picnic to-morrow at Park's Hill.

There are in New York City to-day 1,320 millionaires, against 294 twenty years ago and twenty-five in 1853. There were no millionaires 100 years ago. The first person to reach that distinction was John Jacob Astor, who became a millionaire about the year 1820.

POPE LIES DYING.

Asked That the Shutters Be Opened That He Might See the Light Again.

ONLY CONSCIOUS FOR SHORT TIME

The Pontiff's Sleep Was So Deathlike That Artificial Respiration Was Continued by Dr. Laponni.

The Seemingly Last Moments of Pope Leo Are Full of Solemnity—He Received the Extreme Unction Monday Night.

BULLETIN.

Rome, July 7.—7:42 a. m.—The pope has taken nourishment four times during the night. His pulse shows a slight improvement. At half-past 6 o'clock Tuesday morning he left his bed for an arm chair.

Rome, July 7.—Another morning has broken on the scene within the simple chamber of the vatican where Pope Leo lies dying. As the soft light of dawn penetrated into the room the pontiff whispered to his devoted physician that he desired the shutters of the windows to be opened, saying, "I wish to see once more, perhaps for the last time, the rays of the sun."

It was for only a short period that the pope came back to consciousness from a sleep which Dr. Laponni had induced by a strong dose of chloral. His sleep was so deathlike that artificial respiration was continued and Dr. Laponni every few minutes leaned anxiously over the couch to observe the patient and to listen to his hardly perceptible breathing.

Feeble to the Extreme.

Pope Leo awoke wet with perspiration, feeble to the extreme, and his voice hardly audible. The fits of coughing had brought pains in his chest and shoulders, and, thinking his end was near, he said to Dr. Laponni: "Tell me when the time really comes." The doctor assured his holiness that he believed the danger of his immediate death was averted for the night and for Tuesday.

These seemingly last moments of Pope Leo are full of solemnity. Perhaps his last hours would be less melancholy and sad if the august sufferer were less conscious of the circumstances and his mind less clear as to the duration of time remaining to him before he enters eternity. Although his physical powers are at the lowest ebb, and his breathing more labored, the pope's mind is clear, as is manifested to all around him by his bright expressive eyes and the few words he now and then succeeds in uttering.

RECEIVED EXTREME UNCTION.

Leo Received It With His Usual Calmness.

Shortly after 10 o'clock at night the pontiff received the extreme unction. At 9 o'clock his condition seemed so hopeless that only a short time apparently remained before he would glide into his last sleep.

At Dr. Laponni's initiative a hasty consultation of the pope's relatives, Cardinal Rampolla and other ecclesiastics was held and it was decided that extreme unction should be given. The pontiff received the announcement with his usual calmness, and though scarcely able to speak audibly he said he knew his time had come and he was ready to appear before the sublime tribunal with full trust in Divine mercy.

Telegrams Received.

Mgr. Piffer, Pope Leo's confessor, administered the extreme unction and when the ceremony was over, his holiness sank back on the pillow with apparent great relief that all was done and that he was entering into rest after his long pilgrimage. After the administration of the viaticum, telegrams hoping for his recovery were shown to the pope and he appeared to be much gratified. One of the strangest features in his condition is the interest the pope takes in telegrams inquiring about his health. Monday, having heard that a French woman whom he had received in audience a few weeks ago, had telegraphed a message of sympathy, he asked to see the dispatch, and when Mgr. Piffer brought it he was not satisfied with looking at the message, but wished to read it.

It is noted as a fact that out of 11,199 rural free delivery routes established the last five years 3,792 or over 33 per cent. were in the four adjoining States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and Iowa. But when you think of the enormous "pull" of those States in Washington there is nothing to be surprised at, says Springfield Republican.

PRACTICAL politics is again to triumph in Washington. The President, acting under the advice of such leaders as Clark-son and Platt, has instructed Postmaster General Payne not to divulge any further information concerning the postal invest-igation. Thus the rascals will not be held up to the public gaze, and the "free press" is cheated in order to save the ad-ministration from further embarrassment and incidentally to patch up a severe puncture in the next Republican cam-paign.—Exchange.

The Republican leaders know full well that this "rottenness" in the Postoffice Department will certainly be laid bare as soon as Congress convenes, but Congress will not meet until after the next elec-tion, so the Republicans by keeping it under cover as much as possible will not have all the nasty details of the scandal to contend with during the campaign.

The Mary F. Golden, which has been running in the Maysville and Portsmouth trade for the past year, has been sold to Captain Pell, of Paducah, and was de-livered to him at Cincinnati Saturday by her former owners, Dr. Hill and James Rowley. The Golden will be used by Captain Pell to tow railroad ties out of the Tennessee river.

Grand Fire Slide for Life.
Free, free, free, at fair grounds, Wed-nesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, July 8th, 9th, 10th and 11th, at 8 o'clock. This is one of the most daring acts ever witnessed. Prof. Samuel Whit-taker goes on a high platform on the grand stand from which there is an in-clining cable 400 feet in length. His clothing is saturated with gasoline and set on fire, and he dives down the cable into a tank of water, and the flames are extinguished, making one of the most exciting acts. It will be impressed on your mind for a life time. This was the crowning feature at the World's Fair, Nashville Exposition and Paris Exposi-tion. Should be called "a dive through fire and flame." Don't fail to see it. If rain on any of above nights, performance next fair night. Remember, everything is free.

It is stated that work will be begun at once looking to the completion of the Ironton-Portsmouth extension of the Camden Interstate railway, giving con-nection from Portsmouth with Cincin-nati.

The Sale of Towels.

There was a whirr of activity here Tuesday and Wednesday. Women came in crowds to profit by the splendid values offered in Linen Towels. But in spite of the rapid selling we still have ample to-day. We knew so much for so little would attract large buying and ordered accordingly. Doesn't 100 dozen Towels sound big for an exclusive retailer in our little city? Yet you bought sixty-seven dozen in a day. That's the record. We antici-pated about one-third that demand and gauged the anticipation by the extra-ordinary rush of the Removal Sale, too. But why shouldn't you buy when 7½c. secures 15c. worth? Linen Huck Towels 22x36 unusual 15c. values, for 7½c. Sold only in pairs at 15c.

Shirt Pearl Sets.

These sets of three buttons for shirt waists are made of the best qual-ity of mother pearl. Fine, clear colors that match perfectly. The buttons are round and square, carved in a variety of patterns, or plain. All have safety pin backs, easy to put in.

Mr. John McMann, who is employed about the whariboat, made an unusual catch Saturday,—a black hog weighing fully 300 pounds. The hog came swim-ming down the river and was almost exhausted when McMann reached her in a skiff. It is thought she escaped off the steamer Bonanza.

Mr. R. B. Wilson, aged forty-two, died July 2nd at his home in Newport, and was buried there Monday after funeral services at the Church of Immaculate Conception. He was a son of M. D. Wil-son, of Covington, who formerly lived in Maysville.

The se-nior proprietor regrets he can't accept Mr. Browning's invitation to "come down."

The last will of the late Judge A. E. Cole was admitted to record Monday. A. D. Cole qualified as executor, without surety, as requested. He bequeaths to his last wife what she is entitled to under the statutes. He bequeaths $100 to Johanna Delenty, and the rest of his es-tate is left to his son, Wadsworth, except the library which is to be equally divided between his other sons.

Coroner Wood completed the inquest into the death of the negro Ollie Wren Monday. The jury decided that Wren came to his death at the hands of Elsie Owens, and that the shooting was wilful and malicious. Owens and Clay Com-modore, who gave him the pistol, were afterwards taken before Judge Newell, who set their trial for Wednesday morn-ing and recommitment to jail with-out bail.

Talk about your Fourth of July pic-nics, none of them was in it with the outing given at Ross Station on the C. and O. by a lot of beer guzzlers from somewhere. About seventy-five men and women were camped out there Saturday in tents erected in a small orchard. They styled themselves "The Frog Chasers," but, from the way the men were getting out-side of the beer, the frogs were all safe. They were a generous set, however, and carried out beer by the bucketful to passengers on the Maysville accommoda-tion while the train was side-tracked there to allow the F. F. V. to pass.

Removal Sale Handkerchiefs.

June is a dull month for handkerchief selling, generally. That's why we galvanized it into almost holiday activity by Removal Sale prices which will continue through July.

The most important point to remember is that these handkerchiefs, in spite of their very low prices, are strictly pure linen, with hand drawn, not punched, hemstitching.

FOR WOMEN—80c. half dozen, embroidered or lace edge. Worth 20c. each.

50c. half dozen, ¼ or ½ inch hemstitched hems. Worth 12½c. each.

FOR MEN—80c. half dozen. Narrow or medium hem, excellent quality linen. Worth 20c. each.

For 25c. each, very fine linen with beautiful hemstitched edge. Un-til Removal Sale always marked 39c.

THE BEE HIVE

IT IS GENERALLY KNOWN that G. Cox & Son will retire from business on July 15th. It was with much regret we herald this bit of news, for Maysville, Mason County, aye Kentucky can little afford to lose such a store; a store whose watchword was reliability. The word reliable was stamped on the back door as well as the front. The word reliable was stamped on the yard-stick as well as the goods and on the paper as well as the string. Eighty-three years of trustworthy merchandising has left an everlasting monument to the merchants of Maysville to emulate. May their new plans bring them health, happiness and prosperity.

BE IT KNOWN ALSO

That while we did not buy the old stock of G. Cox & Son we have secured the GOOD WILL by the presence of Miss Maria Boyd who shall beginning with September be located here, with the best, most progressive and FASTEST GROWING STORE IN KENTUCKY. Miss Boyd asks that all her friends and customers in opening new accounts after July 1st to open same at The Bee Hive and it will be appreciated by her as well as by

COMFORTING WORDS.

Many a Maysville Household Will Find Them So.

To have the pains and aches of a bad back removed; to be entirely free from annoying, dangerous urinary disorders is enough to make any kidney sufferer grateful. To tell how this great change can be brought about will prove comforting words to hundreds of Maysville readers.

Mr. M. L. Spencer, grocer of Forest avenue, says: "For many years I was greatly troubled from the lack of proper action of the kidneys. I feared the incipient stage of diabetes, and learning about Doan's Kidney Pills sold at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store, I procured a box. The benefit derived from its use warranted me continuing the treatment. The results obtained in the cases of others I know as well as in my own is a guarantee of the great value of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents a box. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—DOAN'S—and take no substitute.

ALL KINDS OF FIRE

With a good Gas Range you can cook your soup over a slow fire, which it needs, and your roast over a quick fire, and both at the same time. How can you do this anyother way than with a GAS RANGE?

Gas Ranges At Factory Cost Price!

Never was such another opportunity afforded you to obtain so much value for the same money. During the month of June the Gas Company will, if so desired, make a written agreement with any purchaser of a Gas Range to the effect, that, if on the first day of August, said purchaser shall have become dissatisfied with the use of their Range, either for the reason that it will not do the work as represented, or that it costs too much to operate, then the Gas Company will take back the stove and refund any money paid upon its purchase price. The only thing to prevent you taking advantage of this offer is that the Ranges are sold quicker than they can be connected up, so if you are thinking of buying one, now is the time to decide. Over twenty installed during May and not a single complaint. For further particulars see the Gas Company and sample Ranges at Langfels & Co.'s.
